APPENDIX 1

Darlington YOF/YCF Operational Plan V2

September 2006

Section 1 - INTRODUCTION

The Government's Youth Matters white paper, aims at addressing the delivery and provision of services for children and young people. Included is an increased emphasis upon engaging and involving young people in the decision making processes upon the types of youth provision they require and how resources are allocated to establish and support these.

A youth led approach has been advocated for delivery of youth services, an approach recognised both within Youth Matters and the launch of the Russell Commissions volunteering programme 'V'. Local authority youth services have been challenged to develop and deliver increased participation in opportunities in a youth led way via the huge investment from government in the recently launched Youth Opportunities Fund (YOF) and Youth Capital Funds (YCF).

In response to these new funds, Darlington Youth Service, in partnership with Changemakers and the Keyfund, has developed a delivery model for the YOF/YCF. In developing the model this has involved a process of consultation with youth service staff, young people and potential delivery partners.

Contained within the operational delivery plan is an outline of the model, the mechanics of the delivery and an explanation of how this will influence the delivery of the services for children and young people.

Section 2 - OBJECTIVES STATED WITHIN YOUTH MATTERS AND THE YOUTH OPPORTUNITIES AND YOUTH CAPITAL GUIDANCE MET BY THE PARTNERS MODEL

DfES guidance notes for the YOF/YCF and within Youth Matters, state the following aims:

- To give a choice and influence to young people, particularly disadvantaged young people, in relation to things to do and places to go and to convey a powerful message to young people that their needs and aspirations are important.
- Change the way local authorities and their partners provide activities and facilities for young people, especially in deprived neighbourhoods, and to increase the responsiveness of providers to what young people want.
- Improve things to do and places to go in line with what young people want in their neighbourhood.
- Provide opportunities for young people to develop their confidence, knowledge, skills and abilities and gain recognition and /or accreditation for them.
- Increasing the well being of young people by contributing to the achievement of the ECM outcomes.
- Increase young people's engagement with services and with the democratic process at a local level.
- Involve young people, especially hard to reach young people, in identifying positive activities and things to do, and to support their role as decision makers, grant givers and project leaders. (SEE DIAGRAM 3- Young People's Control of funds).

Section 3 - OUTLINE OF THE MODEL DELIVERED BY THE PARTNERSHIP

Darlington Youth Service will work with Changemakers and the Keyfund to deliver the opportunities for 13-19 year olds across the Borough. It builds upon the work currently being developed by Darlington Youth Service on youth engagement and youth participation.

The model developed for delivery of the Youth Opportunity and Capital Funds in Darlington attempts to bring together the substantial experience of the partner organizations and the significant opportunity offered by the fund. The priority tasks for effective delivery being reflected in the key contributions sought, an appropriate direct delivery process utilizing a 'grass roots' approach, a track record of developing young people as decision makers and grant givers, participants of 'youth boards' and 'panels' and a local network of community contacts representative of a familiarity and local knowledge. These aspects being supported by a current and operational system of administration, including reporting capacity meeting statutory requirements and, significantly, the capacity for the development of these elements to establish a robust and effective operational model fit for purpose and reflective of local needs and conditions.

Additionally, the model will seek to develop and build capacity for delivery of wider youth led grant making, increased involvement in decision making by young people, and a broader participation by young people in local democracy.

The model for facilitating access to 'smaller' financial sums operates through a network of trained 'facilitators' consisting of a broad range of individuals active in the community including youth workers, teachers, police officers and parents. There will be training offered for facilitators in the agreed process which has been adapted and developed from existing experience from within the KeyFund, and additional access points identified for young people not currently engaged by represented organizations or individual facilitators to apply for funds for self designed youth led projects will be developed

Our aim is to offer the expertise and experience of local facilitators in supporting groups, through the agreed process, as the initial engagement and dialogue with young people. Here they will be encouraged to undertake things to do, and places to go.

Throughout delivery of the model the adults' role will be to support learning and promote positive action, whilst young people will lead the actions and make the decisions.

From this process young people will be guided and supported to participate in further opportunities including:

• Developing larger scale projects that will be funded by YOF but which may require substantial sums or contributions from YCF to enable completion.

• Funding for these projects will be assessed and allocated by a Youth Board trained and recruited by Changemakers, as a result, increasingly involving young people in decision making, grant making and influencing services that affect them (SEE DIAGRAM 1 Development Model)

A SUMMARY OF THE PARTNERS DELIVERY MODEL

- Increased involvement of young people in decision making, grant making and influencing services that affect them.
- Involvement of young people in peer to peer learning.
- Training for young people as decision makers and grant givers led by Changemakers in partnership with Darlington Youth Service Participation team.
- Accreditation of learning and key skills through such routes as Changemakers ASDAN Citizenship in Action Award and others as appropriate.
- YOF/YCF Facilitator training for youth service staff and youth agencies across Darlington.
- Training for youth service staff and local youth providers from Keyfund & Changemakers in youth led learning and youth led grant making.
- Partnership delivery with local statutory and voluntary providers through existing networks.
- Distribution of funds through the YOF/YCF process and the Youth boards.
- Increased Youth Service engagement with young people aged 13 to 19, particularly from groups not current accessing provision, e.g. black and ethnic minorities, looked after children, those young people not currently engaged in youth provision.
- Involvement in the North East regional networks established by GONE around the YOF/YCF for service providers and young people.
- Recruiting young people in opportunities, participation decision making and youth services for the first time.

ADDITIONAL KEY DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES

- Developing wider participation for young people.
- Involvement of adults (particularly parents) in supporting the participation and learning.
- Creating a learning project to inform wider delivery of services through Children's Trusts.
- Building a network of people facilitating youth led learning and participation.
- Impacting upon the wider policy agenda around communities and engaging in political and decision making processes.
- Bridging the gap between young people and adults (SEE DIAGRAM 4 Adult to Young person led & beyond).

BREAKING NEW GROUND

Where this partnership approach will be breaking new ground is in the work that the programme aims to develop in the following arenas:

- Developing wider participation from young people not currently accessing provision and giving them the resources to support their own ideas. It will be encouraging young people to think bigger, learn more, create their own opportunities, to apply for funds to help them deliver their own ideas and to get the equipment and resources they need from a larger grants scheme for this, linked to key skills development.
- Developing and evaluating practice around the transition of young people from solely recipients of services, to giving them an increased role as project leaders, decision makers and providers.
- Collating learning from the delivery of the YOF/YCF to inform the future delivery of Children's and Young People's services within Children's Trust's.
- Focusing upon widening involvement beyond young people currently participating in youth forums, youth councils, and local democracy in line with the Darlington Youth Participation strategy.
- Examining and developing the role of the parents in supporting youth led learning within local communities.
- Enhancing the role of adults in supporting youth led learning within local communities.
- Establishing a greater convergence between young people and adults as project leaders, decision makers and grant givers, creating the circumstance where young people and adults work in a natural collaboration.
- Linking grants and learning, with the creation of increased learning development opportunities and involvement in local decision making and democracy.

Section 4 - OPERATIONAL DELIVERY PLAN

1 - HOW YOF/YCF WILL BE ALLOCATED THROUGH THIS MODEL

Our partnership will create a strand of larger youth opportunities and capital project grants which will ideally operate an extension of the earlier process, where groups seek to access sums of no more than £2000.

Generally, funds can be accessed by groups who have been supported by a trained facilitator and have completed the necessary requirements of the application process. However, facilitators will be trained to encourage, where appropriate, groups to engage in a staged planning process, offering evidence of learning to support the bid and informed by the standard KeyFund procedure, where appropriate. We will encourage, those who are ready, with adult support, to develop applications and opportunities which involve greater project leadership, decision making and an increased impact upon themselves and the wider community.

Additionally, this will involve work to encourage access for all, and will include targeting those not currently involved. It is our belief that this will both encourage participation AND will offer development of learning and key skills, prior to undertaking a more sustained project, where larger funds are available (a minimum of £2000), which can be accredited through schemes such as the 30 hour Changemakers Citizenship in Action Award.

We plan to run the same application process and assessment by Youth Board/Young People for both YOF/YCF for the opportunities funded by the youth board

This will incorporate emphasising to applicants the need to demonstrate within the Youth Boards assessment process: learning impact, meeting ECM outcomes, how youth led the opportunity is, how key skills will be developed, how it meets Local Area Agreement priorities and fits into the Darlington Children and Young People's plan.

(SEE DIAGRAM 2- Grants Allocation)

13 - PROCUREMENT AND VALUE FOR MONEY STATEMENT

Guidance from the DfES for the delivery of the Youth Opportunities Youth Capital Fund stated that grant funding is delivered in a 'youth led model'.

Following a process of assessment and consultation by Youth Service it was agreed that no current contracts existed within the local authority for this particular delivery service. Additionally, it was identified that this programme required services that were specialized and that these do not currently exist within the authority.

Keyfund and Changemakers individually are recognized as specialist providers within the sector in youth led grant delivery. As partners jointly delivering this contract they are unique and as such there services and expertise cannot be replicated elsewhere for this contract delivery.

In line with the local authority guidance upon 'Best Value' the performance and quality, in respect of the services will be monitored by the steering group for the partnership. All relevant performance indicators, targets, monitoring and reporting procedures will be incorporated into the specification and evaluation processes, and Best Value requirement of delivering continuous improvement will also be addressed by this group.

Section - 5 CONCLUSION

This model builds upon existing learning developed by the partners and offers a ground breaking opportunity for the Council to deliver a programme that can significantly influence the way Children and Young People's Services are provided in the future.

It takes the concept of 'youth led' into new territory, by looking to a step beyond youth led, where there is 'natural collaboration between young people and adults in the delivery of public services.

It will offer through the transition from a grass roots approach, within the delivery process working with young people not engaged in current provision, to opportunities for progression into a role for young people as decision makers and controllers of resources, within the Changemakers progression routes and local Youth Service provision.

Enshrined within that journey are the steps made from the learning and nurturing of a stepped learning process, to a more competitive 'harsher/ real world assessment process' encapsulated in the Youth Board process and within this, a preparation for the transition from youth to adulthood.
