CYP53. WORK BEING UNDERTAKEN WITH YOUNG PEOPLE – David Cox, The Forum Music Centre attended the meeting and gave a presentation on the work being undertaken at The Forum.

The Forum was established in May 2004 and provides recording, rehearsal and performance facilities and a creative space and an exciting social environment. Since opening the Forum has ran a range of programmes and activities for young people and adults which include Newblood Live which is a Live Music Event for 13 to 17 year olds which attracts a full house, hosting Durham Music Services and Darlington and Dales Youth Orchestra, Darlington College BTEC, activities for learning difficulties, community events and various workshops and activity programmes.

Over the past years The Forum has been developing into a high technology creative environment and David outlined to the Members how the Forum had evolved and its plans for the future which ultimately is to become an independent learning centre (academy) specialising in vocational learning and business and enterprise growth.

The newly formed Community Interest Company Humantics CIC formed in October 2008 has plans to take ownership of the Forum Music Centre and with support from this authority are in the final stages of a bid to One North East including additional match fund bids from other organisations such as Futurebuilders England.

It was highlighted that out of the 1304 school leavers for 2009, 81.8% were in full-time education, 7.7% in work based training and 3.1% in employment with training. The remaining 7.4 % (relating to 88 school leavers) in the remaining categories.
