Description of Proposal: Proposal to withdraw the mobile library service, which visits 90 locations across the Borough in the town and villages, providing opportunities for residents who can't visit or choose not to either the main library or Cockerton to borrow books or have access to the internet. On average there are approximately 110 adults using the mobile library per week and on average approximately 154 children per week using the mobile library service when it visits their school or nursery. NOTE The Council operates a housebound service for people who cannot get to a Library due to their health.
